Degree Certification

To Whom It May Concern:

May 7, 2013

This is to certify that Mr. Ratko (Svetozar) Bosanac has satisfactorily completed the equivalency degree of Bachelor of Science in Rod Traffic & Transportation on September 22, 2012. His studies are equivalent to the same degree awarded by the regionally and nationally accredited universities in the United States of America.

California University FCE has evaluated the academic credentials of some ranking officials of the United Nations in New York. California University FCE is also listed in the EDUCAUSE portal. You can check from this link: www.educause.edu/wiki/California+University+FCE.

The United States Department of Education has listed California University FCE on October 23, 2009 in its Education Resource Organizations Directory with Unique ID 7499. It has also listed California University FCE among the accredited higher education organizations. California University FCE is a member of AAHEA- American Association for Higher Education Accreditation.

California University FCE is authorized to integrate all of the academic credits earned from various institutions into an academic degree and issue an equivalency diploma to the applicant.

California University FCE, through its membership in EAIE, is affiliated to ACE-Admissions Officers and Credential Evaluators.

AIEA is a very prestigious higher education organization. It is an international professional membership association for leaders in the field of international higher education. California University FCE, and only two NACES members: World Education Service (WES), the Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc (ECE) and the Academic Credential Evaluation Institute, Inc.(ACEI) are among the few bona fide credential evaluation services that are organizational members of AIEA. The U.S. Department of Education, the American Council on Education (ACE) and the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AACSCU) are also organizational members of AIEA.

California University FCE evaluated the curriculum and the academic credentials of the deans, faculty members, staff and students of California University of Management and Sciences when it applied for national accreditation in October 2005. It is now accredited by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS) to award degrees, diplomas and certificates since April 2006.

California University FCE.edu Evaluators are Expert Curriculum Evaluators.

California University FCE is commissioned to do curricula and other program evaluation of some U.S. colleges and universities that are applying for national accreditation. Some of these U.S. colleges and universities that are now accredited are California University of Management and Sciences, West Coast University, and the American Career College, CUFCE has also evaluated the curricula of some members of the Global University Network for Innovation (GUNI) of UNESCO and the United Nations University. Some of these universities are listed in our web site under Affiliated Institutions. California University FCE is listed at EDUCAUSE Portal. To verify, click EDUCAUSE at CUFCE's Related Links at www.cufce.pcu.edu.

This equivalency report, provided by California University FCE staff, composed of Doctors and Masters degree professors, is based on informed opinion as experts in the field of curriculum and credential evaluations.

California University FCE evaluated the curriculum and the academic credentials of the deans, professors and staff of California University of Management and Sciences in October 2005 when it applied for national accreditation by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools. California University of Management and Sciences is now accredited since April 2006.

Some U.S. regionally accredited` universities utilize CUFCE services for the credit evaluation of their graduating students to determine whether each candidate for graduation has complied with the curriculum requirements of the different Areas of Study. Other national evaluators do not perform this type of evaluation.

California University FCE reports are accepted by the State of New Jersey Department of Education Board of Examiners for Teacher Credentialing of its public school teachers and its public school administrators. The State of Washington CPA Board of Examiners also accepts CUFCE's evaluation reports. Professional Engineers, Medical, Dental and Nursing Boards of most states accept our evaluation reports.

California University FCE is proud to be a member of the very prestigious higher education organization - the Association of International Education Administrators. AIEA is an international professional membership association for leaders in the field of international higher education. Among the notable credential evaluation services that are also members are WES - World Education Services, Inc., ECE- Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc. and the ACEI - Academic Credential Evaluation Institute, Inc. The American Association of State Colleges and Universities is also a member.

California University FCE is a member of five higher education organizations that are recognized by the United States Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation - CHEA.
